Managers Korner

January 2018

Tony Toscano

Managers message is a repeat from last month but, being in that Holiday season I still feel it's appropriate.

Welcome to the Holiday Season. Everything we can think of that we have done year after year will be done again. Shopping, cooking, eating too much, naps, eating too much again, kids, cleanup and that all important relaxing deep exhale when it's all over. And of course, the words 'this is the last time we do this', which we all know is not true. Once we relax and unwind from the season we all realize we are grateful for what we have and most of all can provide to our family – like them or not- and friends. Please take to time to tell them or at least give them a silent thought of appreciation. They may not make you happy all the time, but thank them for the times they have.

Thank you for all those who attended and participated in the activities of the park, and for those who coordinated and ran them.

Since it's the holiday season I will not drill into you the needed maintenance on homes. You should know by now what needs to be done. But if you need reminders I will take my time to let you know. Again, please do not pay me to write you letters of compliance. It really is a waste of my time and your money.

The mailroom project is completed. We hope you like it. We are looking for creative ideas for holiday themes and designs to the center section of the area. We left that area open for ongoing themes, Valentine Hearts, St Paddy's Day 4 leaf clovers and the town drunk, etc – you get the idea. Bring those ideas to the office or the Board.

We (Shannon and I) were notified of and repaired 2 monster water leaks in the park – we think they were in the 100,000 gallon a month range. We will see for sure when we get the report back from the City. A "Thank you" to unit 149 (Ms. Holden) for letting us know of 1 leak and to unit 150 (Dave and Debra Schuler) for providing us with ice water and clean towels while we worked in the ground in the heat of that day. One to unit 66 Barbara Smith who let us know about the other leak. Another "Thank you" to Gladys and Don Edwards who donated the poinsettias to the first official display in front of the mailroom.

Palm tree planting, for those who want them replaced, will be announced in the Feb Beacon with an attached form to submit their written request.

It's long way off, March 2018, but our Annual Meeting is the next one we expect your participation in. There will be 3 positions open – as of now. Please consider running if you feel you can contribute to the future well-being of your Park.

Lawns- I will be brief – those dry spots may be a brown spot fungus- caused by lawns being wet – watering – dew that does not dry out during the day – especially on the North sides of homes. Wells will be off until most likely 1/8 to give them a chance to dry out a bit. Also Tru Green will spray for the 3rd week in a row on the lawns we identified with this fungus. The lawns will also not be mowed until 1/9 – our lawn service is on holiday

TRASH PICKUP

NO PICK-UP on Monday 12/25 or 1/1

Pick-up will be on Thursday 12/28 and 1/4

NO RECYCLE Pick-up until 1/8

Dumpster pick ups will also be cancelled for MONDAY 12/25 and 1/1 – so please be careful about loading up the dumpsters during these holidays

Any trash that is not perishable please store at your home until pickups are made

THANK YOU

REPEAT, REPEAT, REPEAT until we all get it:

SPEEDING is TERRIBLE – we have residents who report consistent speeding by outside trucks, but it should not be an issue with our residents. I need to know dates, times, and roads that speeders are reported on. We can only do our best at letting people know they are putting themselves and others in harms way. If they want to defend this by saying “prove it” they are only fooling themselves and getting away with nothing. The season brings additional drinking and more situations for accidents. Do not be one of them. Slow down.

Homes for Sale

Currently only 4 homes are for sale. Only 2 are listed with a realtor and 2 homes -unit 62 and unit 172 - are listed

BY OWNER. The “by owner” info has not been sent to the office so please call them directly if you need to view. Unit 84 is also for sale thru a realtor, but this office has not received any information to post on that sale. Our home values have continued to get better. Thank you to those who have helped.

Unit 140 – 73.5K Unit 249-73.5K

ACTIVITY COMMITTEE NEWS

Janet Purtee, Secretary

The busy holiday season has passed, but what a fun-filled month it was. Clubhouse and outside were beautifully decorated, and even though weather was warm, we still felt the holiday spirit! Being surrounded by so many friends make this the best place to live. Snowbirds are coming back quickly and many more activities coming up. Come join us!!

Happiness and Health to you all.
Hopefully you spent a Very MERRY CHRISTMAS with friends and family and thoughts of loved ones that are here or not with us any longer but still remain in our hearts and it leads to a Happy New Year
Safe travels, enjoy family, love life.

Tony

The Stonehedge Activity Committee needs many volunteers to continue the tradition of providing fun activities in the Park. Please consider running for the Committee to help us achieve our goals. We are always in need of new talent, in both the business aspects and event planning. We need YOU to keep the programs fresh and exciting. Please fill out the attached application of intent to be a candidate

January activities planned:

January 13 - New Residents Party / Ice Cream Social hosted by Sue and Dick Babcock, from 2:00P – 4:00. Always a great way to welcome new neighbors and enjoy delicious ice cream too!

January 16 - Dance Party hosted by Jim & Cheryl Kolbe. This is a free event. Just bring a snack. Time is from 7:00P – 9:00. Lots of fun!

January 20 - Pancake Breakfast hosted by Bob Purtee and Phil Dailey. Cost is $5.00 and tickets will be sold January 10 and 17 during Coffee. Time is 8:00A – 10:00 for hot-off-the- grill pancakes, sausage, scrambled eggs, juice, and coffee! Pretty good eating!

January 23 - Karaoke hosted by Jim Haehl returns to the clubhouse. Always lots of fun. Time is 7:00P - 9:30.

January 26 - Spaghetti Dinner & Dance hosted by Peggy and George McBee. Band will be the Bendy's. Time is 5:00P – 9:00. and tickets will be sold Jan 10 and 17 during Coffee. Cost is $10 per person.

STILL NEED HOSTS FOR the Carport Sale. See Penny Curvin if interested!

January 30 – The Book Club will convene at the clubhouse at 7:00P to discuss John LeCarre's "Tinker, Tailor, Soldier Spy"

January 31 - Roaring 20s party hosted by Mary Jo and Bruce Mueller. Time is from 6:30P – 10:00. Entertainment is Scott Fallon. Cost of tickets are $9 and will be sold Jan 17 and 24. Roaring 20s attire is fun to wear and encouraged, but not required. Sounds like a fun time to me!

Come out and support our shuffleboard teams for their home meets:

Jan 2 (B Team)

Jan 3 (A Team)

Jan 15 (B Team)

Jan 17 (A Team)

STONEHEDGE BINGO ON THURSDAYS!

Join us for Bingo.
Cards must be purchased by 6:30
Must be 18 or over to play.

*Hear ye,
Hear ye!*

Please join your hosts Sue & Dick Babcock at the clubhouse on January 13th from 2:00P – 4:00 for the annual "Meet the New Residents Ice Cream Social". New neighbors and ice cream – it doesn't get any better than that!

What a lovely Christmas Dinner Dance! Kudos to Debbie Ingalls and her committee for a fantastic evening.

I would like to thank Dick Elton for helping me with the front entrance lighting display design and especially, Brian Ward, Terry Ellingson, Darrell Streff, Bob Lavoie, Stan Hall and Bill Welker for the actual work of wrapping the trees. It could not have happened without you. We all appreciate everyone's kind remarks for our efforts.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all!!

Jayne Lucas

A TRAVEL SHOW AT THE CLUBHOUSE

On Wednesday, January 17th, we will show some of the pictures that have been requested by several residents. These photos are of a trip around the continent of South America and of a three day cruise along the shores of Antarctica. The photos will be shown starting at 9:00A. Come join us if you are interested. All welcome.

FROM THE EDITOR:

Just a quick note to thank you all in advance for your forbearance as I learn the ropes necessary to editing The Stonehedge Beacon. Let's all give a hearty round of applause to Susan Elton for her selfless stewardship as your editor (I only hope to do half as well). I probably won't always have 2 cents to add, but if I do, I will. In the meantime, please accept my wishes for a healthy, happy, and prosperous 2018.

Jewelry, Jewelry, Jewelry

Since we have retired from selling jewelry at the Spring Fair after doing it for many years, we would like to you to know the residents taking it over are Stephanie Welker #85 Phone 330.993.7909 and Audrey Jaspers-Fayer #253 Phone 519.938.2468
It was truly our pleasure for many years.

Sincerely, Linda Kosloski & Joan Mrowczynski

Turfgrass Diseases

A disease is an abnormal change in the natural growth and function of a turfgrass plant which is caused by another living organism. The organism that can cause a disease is called a pathogen.

Three important requirements must be present in order for a plant pathogen to cause a disease:

- Host – the host in this case is a susceptible (capable of being infected) turfgrass plant
- Pathogen – microorganisms that use the host turfgrass plant for food
- Environment – Temperature, humidity, grass blade wetness and soil moisture can all affect both the host turfgrass plant and the pathogen

The key to controlling turfgrass diseases, as with any lawn pest, is proper identification. Since the pathogens causing the disease are microscopic, the TruGreen specialist must carefully examine the grass plants in a lawn to accurately determine if disease activity is present.

Leaf Spot is a common lawn disease of both cool and warm season turfgrasses. It begins during mild, wet conditions. Leaf spot then progresses in severity (called “melting out”) as the temperatures heat up.

“Cigarette burns” of leaf spot

Necrotic Ring Spot is a patch disease of Kentucky bluegrass lawns. This disease attacks both the above- and below-ground plant tissues making it particularly devastating. Activity occurs as temperatures approach 80 degrees.

Necrotic Ring Spot

Brown Patch affects all species of cool season turf and is particularly severe on St. Augustinegrass in the south. Prolonged wet periods, warm (but not hot) temperatures and excessive fertilization are conditions that favor brown patch development.

Brown Patch lesions

Because we cannot control the environmental conditions that favor disease development, control of turfgrass diseases is typically not included as part of the TruGreen lawn care program. Some regions market control of certain diseases as an Expanded (or Beneficial) service. Further information regarding disease control offerings will be provided by local sales management.
