MANAGER'S KORNER

October 2020

Tony Toscano

August seemed to fly by. I guess when you are basically told to do nothing – outside of work that is – you do nothing. Days run into days and sooner rather than later another month is gone. Just like everyone I speak to – not happy about it but we try to make the best. This month I had to drive over to Melbourne, since my grandson's orthodontist has been fully paid for by others and they have no offices here on the west coast. We decided to make a weekend out of it, so we booked a place on the ocean. Hotel was empty. Brought me back to the days growing up in Coney Island NY. East coast, Atlantic Ocean, just around a storm, can't beat it. We hit the surf soon as we got there. Battled 7-8 ft relentless waves and a strong undertow. Trying to get away from an 8-footer looking down at you while the undertow was holding you in place was like in a dream when you're scared and you can only run in slow motion. Just tell everyone you love them before it hits, haha. Great fun. I also did my part for the wildlife of the planet: While watching the sunrise and surf one morning during a beach walk, I noticed about 5-6 dead baby leatherback turtles in the sand. Apparently, some seagulls carried them there to have a meal. While feeling a bit sad I noticed that under the sand something was stirring, sure enough, one baby had hidden out of harm's way. I scooped the little guy up, brought him close to the surf and watched as he got pounded by the waves, never giving up and paddled his way out to sea. Made the morning, made the sunrise, made the day. Made a forever moment whenever.

Around the park

- Not much going on out there– which is a change from the last 14 summers I have been here. Out there, not much – in here between the home sales and residents getting their estates in order there has been plenty of paperwork to catch up on.
- We are looking to schedule the next tree trim
- Still putting together the back-entrance landscape project
- Currently working with the budget committee on the 2021 budget
Date to remember – Budget Meeting for residents November 11th. Each member will be mailed the proposed budget around the 11th of October. If there are any questions call the office or bring them to the budget meeting in November.

Homes for Sale – just can't keep them around - keep letting friends and family know that Stonehedge is "a Great place to Live"

Unit 20 - $69.5K

Unit 129 - $53K

Unit 176 - $78K

Unit 188 - $92.5K listed by owner

Unit 189 - for sale by owner – no info

Unit 200 - $92K

Unit 236 - $119.5K

Be kinder than necessary because everyone you meet is fighting some kind of battle

Laugh when you can, Apologize when you should
Do not dwell on what you cannot change,
Let go of what you cannot control, Take charge of what you can.

Make forever moments whenever,

Safe travels, love life.

The Landscape Article October 2020

By the landscape guy

I hope you have come thru the extreme weather changing conditions that we have faced the last month. We have had a month of monster rains then 2 weeks of very dry and recently have experienced on and off rains. We have been lucky so far since this is prime chinch bug weather. Our monthly treatments have held up so far this year

If any areas of your lawn that are dying off and spreading please report them to the office. Some of those dead areas will come back with some care. This is where you come in to aid the already in place park preventative program. The best way to combat weeds is to clean up that portion of the dead –by raking out the dead portion and putting down a pest control product to aid the already in place controls. This will assure that any remaining pests will be under control when the healthy grass starts to fill in. Any general lawn pest control product will do, Bayer brand is one of the better ones. If you care to sod after the area has been cleaned up, that is the best time to do this or you can wait for the stronger grass to fill in, either way it's your choice.

Another way to combat reoccurring weeds that find their way in between your healthy lawn or grow in those bare spots is to please use a separate weed killer – weed and feed combination fertilizer and weed killers are only recommended in the colder months (Dec, Jan, Feb), I don't recommend them at all. Reason is that cooler months tend to kill out weeds faster and do not need much additional help. Best to put as little product into the environment as possible.

It's the time of year to enjoy seasonal annuals and the cool weather blooming plants. It's also the time to make sure you're prepared for the next years growing season. It can be done by strengthening the lawn you have. A good all-purpose fertilizer for this time is one with a high-end number:

Using an example of a good fertilizer labeled as a 18-5-10

18- The first number is the nitrogen parts per million for greening

5- is for phosphorous, which is a natural element in the Florida soil, so you do not need to add any at this stage

10- is for potassium (potash) which helps strengthen the root system.

You have the next 2 months to be able to add this to you soil to strengthen it even more than the natural rains did.

October is also the time you should look at the plants that did not make it thru the hot summer months or those that took extra special care. Unless you have the extra time to fuss with them its best to consider options. This may mean that they are not suited to take the heat and should be changed out. If you care to, replace them with more suitable plants that can take the torrid summer months. Best to look up plants suited for our zone (zone 9) on the internet or ask the local nursery (not Home Depot or Lowes-

I have direct experience with their garden shops and the knowledge is limited at best. PLEASE DO NOT TAKE THE PLANT LABELS SERIOUS ON THESE GARDEN CENTER PLANTS. If you insist on shopping at these garden centers I suggest you ask a test question or 2 to see if you get the correct answer, such as "are weed and feeds good to use year round?" The answer is "NO" unless you have a completely spotless lawn that needs no other attention, and I doubt that in Florida. There is a reason these stores are called "do it yourself"

Over the next 2-3 months we will be discussing the do's and don'ts of fall and winter gardening.

See you next month

It's a good day on the green side of the grass

Happy Birthday

BAGUETTES RECIPE

Shirley Duffield's Brochette recipe in the last Beacon spoke of French Baguettes. Here is a recipe for French Baguettes that looks hard but is really very simple. The only hard part is all the waiting time in between the many risings and then waiting until it's cool enough to eat.

2-1/4 tsp dry yeast (1 packet, not rapid rise!)

1-2/3 c warm water

3-1/2 c bleached flour

1-1/2 tsp salt

- Sprinkle yeast into 1-1/4 c of the warm water in a bowl. Leave for 5 minutes to dissolve. Mix flour and salt in a large bowl and make a well in the center. Pour in dissolved yeast.
- Use a wooden spoon to draw only enough of the flour into the dissolved yeast to make a soft paste. Cover the bowl with a dish towel and let sit until frothy and risen, 20 minutes.
- Mix in the remaining flour. Add the remaining warm water only as needed, 1 tablespoon at a time to form a soft, sticky dough.
- Turn out onto a lightly floured work surface. Knead until soft, smooth and supple, about 10 minutes. Try to avoid adding in extra flour while kneading the dough.
- Put the dough in a clean bowl and cover with a dish towel. Let rise until doubled in size, about 1-1/2 hours.
- Punch down dough, re-cover, and let rise for 45 minutes longer. Then, punch down again, re-cover, and let rise until doubled in size, about another 45 minutes.
- Divide the dough into two equal parts and shape into two baguettes, each about 12" long. Place on a floured baking sheet, cover with a dish towel, and let sit until doubled in size, about 50 minutes.

Cut several diagonal slashes across the top and bake in preheated 475 degree oven overnight for 20 -25 minutes, until golden and hollow sounding when tapped underneath. Cool on a wire rack.

- Enjoy. Susan Williams, #132

IS WE IS OR IS WE AIN'T?

As we begin the less-than-enjoyable task of tearing down our campsite on Cape Cod in preparation for our return to our adopted home in FL, a question occurs to me: are we "Snow Birds"? To me, the question is only important because the designation carries with it a negative connotation, the implication that when the going gets tough, the less-than-tough head north (or south, depending on the season). In defense of our actions I say, "Why suffer either extreme of hot/cold weather, if you have the wherewithal to avoid them?" (I have no doubt there are still those who will think us wussies, and I'm sure that there will come a time when "gettin' outta Dodge" will become more work than it's worth, at which point we'll sit in our air conditioning and try not to be too judgmental of those who can still make the effort. The one thing that seems to bind us all together is a desire not to be too hot or cold, and on that note let us say that we look forward to joining you all soon in warmer climes!

SENIOR SCAMS

Seniors lose billions of dollars every year to scams. Protecting our seniors starts with talking to them about different types of scams and how to avoid becoming a victim.

Popular Scam:

"The Grandparent or Family Emergency Scam"

How It Works:

* Senior gets a call from a person impersonating a grandchild or relative saying they have an emergency, i.e. they are in jail, their car broke down, been involved in an accident or kidnapped and they need money

QUICK.

* At times they call at night to appear legitimate and/or have others in their story.

* They ask for Money to be wired to them immediately.

* They ask that it be kept a secret.

For more info: Tarpon Springs Police Dept.

What Should I Do?

1. Resist the urge to act immediately
No matter how dramatic the story.

2. Verify and ask questions
Ask hard questions for a stranger to guess.

Tell someone and call the person named to let them know what is happening to verify the information.

3. Report it

To our valued customers;

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.
